Our team of reporters has been on the ground in Sri Lanka, witnessing the unfolding crisis firsthand. We've spoken to people who are struggling to make ends meet, businesses that are closing down, and experts who are warning that the situation could get even worse.

In this exclusive report, we provide an in-depth analysis of the causes of Sri Lanka's economic collapse and explore the potential consequences for the country and the region.

Afghanistan's Taliban Takeover

In August 2021, the Taliban seized control of Afghanistan after a lightning-fast offensive. The Taliban's return to power has raised fears of a return to the dark days of their previous rule.

Our team of reporters has been on the ground in Afghanistan, covering the Taliban's takeover and its aftermath. We've spoken to Taliban officials, Afghan civilians, and international aid workers.

In this exclusive report, we provide an in-depth analysis of the Taliban's takeover and its potential consequences for Afghanistan and the region.

Other South Asian Flashpoints

In addition to Sri Lanka and Afghanistan, there are several other countries in South Asia that are facing political instability, economic challenges, and security threats.

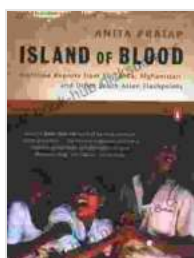

Our team of reporters has been covering these flashpoints, including:

- The ongoing political crisis in Myanmar
- The rising tensions between India and Pakistan

- The security challenges in the Maldives
- The growing influence of China in the region

South Asia is a region of great geopolitical importance. The countries of South Asia are facing a complex web of challenges, including political instability, economic crises, and security threats.

Our team of reporters is on the ground in South Asia, providing exclusive reporting and in-depth analysis from the frontlines. We are committed to providing our readers with the most up-to-date and accurate information about the region.
