The Divine Message of Islam

The divine message of Islam is revealed in the Quran, the holy book of Muslims, which is believed to be the verbatim word of God as revealed to the Prophet Muhammad. The Quran teaches that there is only one God, Allah, and that Muhammad is his final prophet. It also emphasizes the importance of submission to God's will and the belief in the Day of Judgment. The divine message of Islam is based on five pillars:

1. The Declaration of Faith (Shahada)
2. Prayer (Salat)
3. Alms-giving (Zakat)
4. Fasting during the month of Ramadan (Sawm)
5. Pilgrimage to Mecca (Hajj)

These five pillars provide a framework for Muslims to live their lives in accordance with the divine message and to seek God's favor.

Islam and the World

The divine message of Islam has had a profound impact on the world in various ways. It has shaped the culture, society, and history of many regions, and its influence can be seen in art, architecture, literature, science, and technology.

Culture
