I was born in Sudan in 1977, and my family fled the country during the Second Sudanese Civil War when I was a child. We spent our childhood in a refugee camp in Kenya, and I began my modeling career in the early 1990s. I was discovered by a photographer while I was working as a waitress in London, and I quickly became one of the most sought-after models in the world.

I have since appeared on the covers of magazines such as Vogue, Elle, and Harper's Bazaar, and I have worked with major fashion designers such as Calvin Klein, Donna Karan, and Marc Jacobs. I am also a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador, and I work to raise awareness of the plight of refugees around the world.

My journey from Sudanese refugee to international supermodel has been a long and challenging one, but it has also been a journey of hope, resilience, and strength. I am proud of my accomplishments, and I am grateful for the opportunities that I have been given. I hope that my story will inspire others to never give up on their dreams, no matter how difficult they may seem.

From Refugee Camp To Catwalk

My family fled Sudan when I was a child, and we spent our childhood in a refugee camp in Kenya. The conditions in the camp were harsh, and we often went hungry. But despite the challenges, I never gave up on my dreams. I knew that I wanted to be a model, and I was determined to make it happen.

I began my modeling career in the early 1990s, and I quickly became one of the most sought-after models in the world. I was featured on the covers of magazines such as Vogue, Elle, and Harper's Bazaar, and I worked with major fashion designers such as Calvin Klein, Donna Karan, and Marc Jacobs.

My success as a model has allowed me to give back to the community that I came from. I am a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador, and I work to raise awareness of the plight of refugees around the world. I also support a number of charities that work to provide food, shelter, and education to refugees.

A Role Model For Young Women

I am proud of my accomplishments, and I am grateful for the opportunities that I have been given. I hope that my story will inspire others to never give up on their dreams, no matter how difficult they may seem. I believe that anything is possible with hard work and determination.

I am a role model for young women around the world. I show them that it is possible to overcome adversity and achieve their dreams. I also show them that it is important to give back to the community and to make a difference in the world.

My Legacy

I want to leave a legacy of hope and inspiration. I want people to look at my story and see that anything is possible. I want them to know that they can overcome any obstacle and achieve their dreams. I also want them to know that it is important to give back to the community and to make a difference in the world.

I am grateful for the opportunities that I have been given, and I am committed to using my platform to make a positive impact on the world. I hope that my story will inspire others to never give up on their dreams and to make a difference in the world.
