

That Went By Fast: My First Hundred Years

I was born in the year 1922, the same year that the first commercial radio station began broadcasting. I have lived through a century of incredible change, from the advent of the automobile to the rise of the internet. I have witnessed the horrors of war and the triumphs of peace. I have seen humanity at its best and at its worst.

My parents were farmers, and I grew up on a small farm in rural Iowa. Life was simple in those days. We worked hard, but we also had a lot of fun. I remember playing baseball with my friends in the summer and sledding down the hills in the winter. I also loved to read, and I spent many hours lost in the pages of books.

That Went By Fast: My First Hundred Years by Yuri Abietti

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 4642 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 268 pages

I graduated from high school in 1940, and then I went to college at the University of Iowa. I studied journalism, and I worked on the college newspaper. After I graduated from college, I got a job as a reporter for a small-town newspaper. I loved my job, and I quickly rose through the ranks. Within a few years, I was the editor of the newspaper.

In 1948, I married my wife, Mary. We had two children, a son and a daughter. We lived in a small house in the suburbs, and we were very happy. I continued to work as a journalist, and I eventually became the editor of a large metropolitan newspaper.

I retired from journalism in 1982, but I didn't slow down. I volunteered for many different organizations, and I also wrote several books. I also traveled extensively, and I visited all seven continents. I have had a long and full life, and I am grateful for all the experiences I have had.

Here are some of the highlights of my life:

- I was born in the year 1922, the same year that the first commercial radio station began broadcasting.
- I grew up on a small farm in rural Iowa.
- I graduated from high school in 1940, and then I went to college at the University of Iowa.
- I studied journalism, and I worked on the college newspaper.
- After I graduated from college, I got a job as a reporter for a small-town newspaper.
- I loved my job, and I quickly rose through the ranks.
- Within a few years, I was the editor of the newspaper.
- In 1948, I married my wife, Mary.
- We had two children, a son and a daughter.

- We lived in a small house in the suburbs, and we were very happy.
- I continued to work as a journalist, and I eventually became the editor of a large metropolitan newspaper.
- I retired from journalism in 1982, but I didn't slow down.
- I volunteered for many different organizations, and I also wrote several books.
- I also traveled extensively, and I visited all seven continents.
- I have had a long and full life, and I am grateful for all the experiences I have had.

Here are some of the challenges I have faced:

- I grew up during the Great Depression.
- I served in the military during World War II.
- I lost my wife to cancer in 2002.
- I have had several health problems in recent years.

Despite the challenges I have faced, I have always remained positive. I believe that life is a gift, and I am determined to make the most of it. I am grateful for all the experiences I have had, and I am looking forward to the years to come.

I am now 100 years old, and I am still going strong. I live in a retirement home, and I enjoy spending time with my family and friends. I also enjoy reading, writing, and traveling. I am grateful for all the blessings in my life, and I am looking forward to the future.

I have learned a lot in my 100 years on this earth. I have learned that life is precious and that it should be cherished. I have also learned that it is important to never give up on your dreams. No matter what challenges you face, never give up on yourself. Believe in yourself, and never stop fighting for what you believe in.

I am grateful for the opportunity to share my story with you. I hope that my story will inspire you to live your life to the fullest. Never take anything for granted, and always appreciate the people and things you have in your life.

Thank you for reading my story.

Image Gallery

Here are some photos from my life:

TO MY WIFE

ON OUR WEDDING DA

That Went By Fast: My First Hundred Years by Yuri Abietti

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 4642 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 268 pages

FREE

DOWNLOAD E-BOOK

Tough Cookies Don't Crumble: The Unbreakable Spirit of Those Who Overcome Adversity

Life is full of challenges. We all face them, in one form or another. But for some people, the challenges are so great that they seem insurmountable. They may come in...

The California-Born Diners, Burger Joints, and Fast Food Restaurants That Changed the World

California is known for many things, but its fast food scene is one of its most iconic. From In-N-Out to McDonald's, some of the most well-known fast food...