

The Brown Reader: 50 Writers Remember College Hill

Edited by Sarah Manguso and Emily Nemens

The Brown Reader: 50 Writers Remember College Hill is a collection of essays by 50 writers who attended Brown University. The essays explore the university's history, culture, and traditions, and provide a unique glimpse into the lives of some of Brown's most famous alumni.

The essays in The Brown Reader are as diverse as the writers themselves. Some essays are funny, while others are sad. Some are nostalgic, while others are critical. But all of the essays are honest and insightful reflections on the experience of attending Brown University.
